

Bhutan gets two female ambassadors including its 1st

Director Law and Order appointed Bhutan's Consul General to Kolkata

Kunzang C Namgyel

Pema Choden

Tenzing Lamsang / Thimphu

Bhutan will have two female ambassadors posted in the United Nations, New York and Bangladesh.

The first is Kunzang Chhoden Namgyel who was earlier the Deputy Permanent Representative in New York and is now an Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the United Nations, effective from January 3, 2014.

The second appointment is of Pema Choden who has been appointed as the Ambassador to Bangladesh. She is currently the Chief in the Bilateral Department covering the Europe, Americas and Africa Division. She also served as the Managing Director of Bhutan Broadcasting Service (BBS).

Though Kunzang Chhoden Namgyel has been announced as the first female Ambassador, technically both she and Pema Choden's appointments were given

cont. on pg 05